

Guest Speaker

Latisha Mapp

September 28

Latisha is presently employed with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Water. In her position as a Senior Scientist she manages the Water Laboratory Alliance Program. The alliance represents a nationwide coordinated network of laboratories capable of responding to drinking water contamination events. Under her leadership the alliance conducted EPA's largest full scale laboratory exercise which involved over 32 states and 5 federal agency.

Topic

Water Laboratory Alliance

Come out and learn more about the Water Laboratory Alliance Program. Whether you are a public or private laboratory, this session will provide timely information regarding the

- Importance of emergency planning
- How to participate in a Full Scale Exercise.
- Provide useful tools and resources.
- Information regarding the Integrated Nationwide Networks of Laboratories

When: Thursday, September 28, 2017

Where: San Antonio River Authority

600 E. Euclid

Refreshments will be served